BELGIAN AMBASSADOR ABSENT WHEN MR. CHURCHILL MAKES AN IMPORTANT STATEMENT ON WAR

Resolve To Defend World Cause

The Belgian Ambassador to Great Britain was not present in the Diplomatic Gallery of the House of Commons yesterday afternoon when an important statement on the latest war developments was made by Mr. Winston Churchill, Prime Minister, who was received with general cheers, says Reuter.

There was no excitement or disturbance of mind during question time and Members quietly awaited the statement.

The Russian, Brazilian and Turkish Ambassadors were present in the Diplomatic Gallery.

The Prime Minister said: "The House will be aware that the King of the Belgians yesterday sent his plenipotentiary to the German Command asking for suspension of arms on the Belgian front."

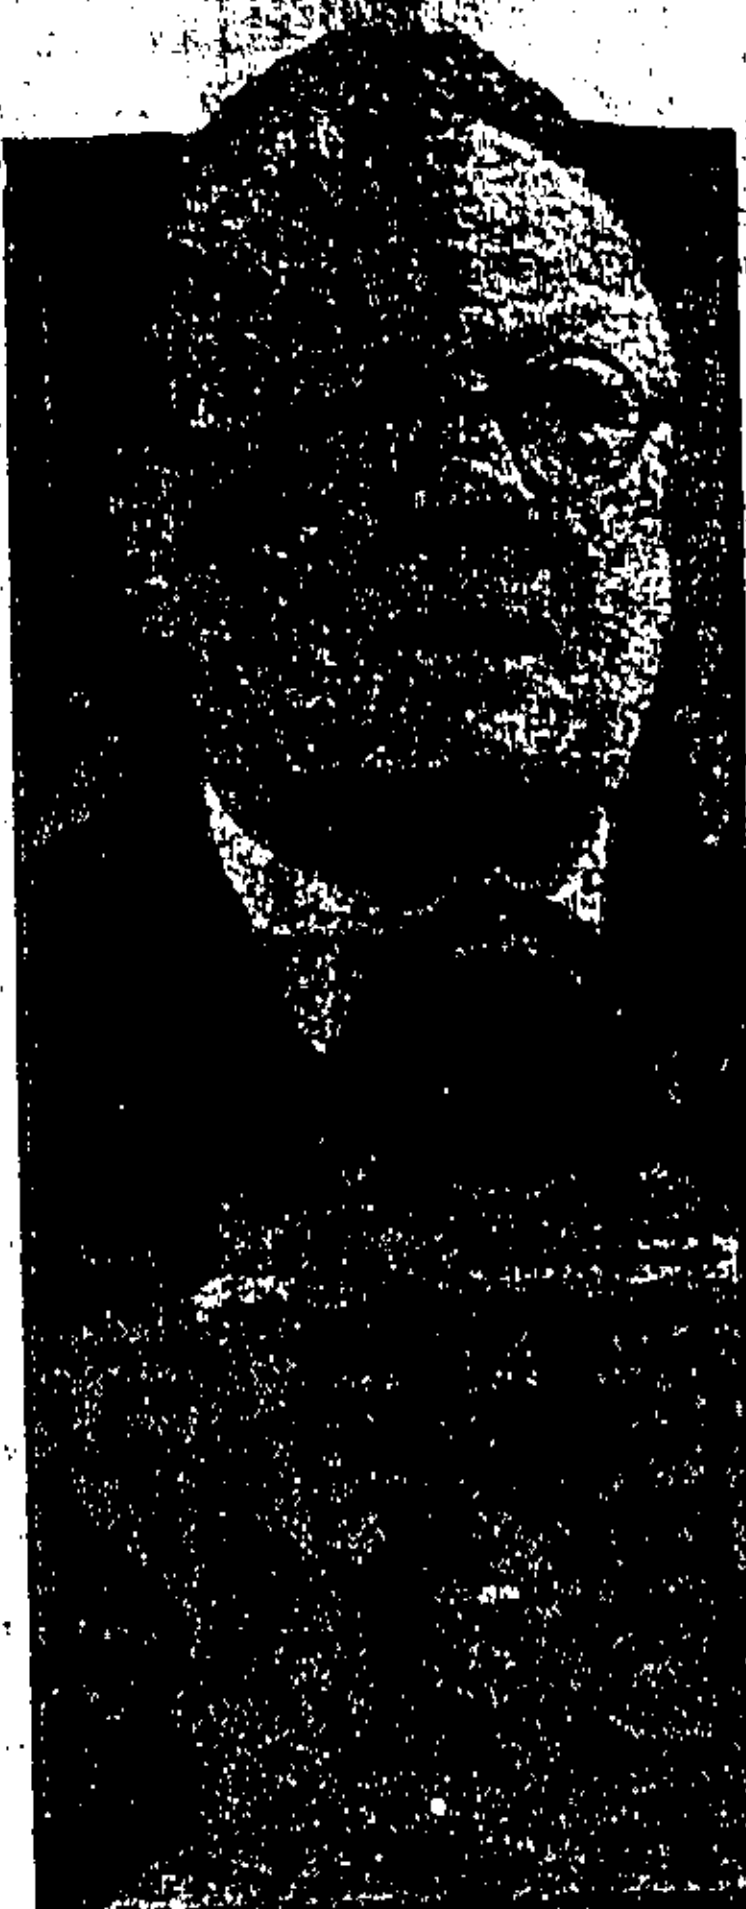

"The British and French Governments instructed their generals immediately to disassociate themselves from this proceeding (cheers) and to persevere in the operations on which they are now engaged."

ACTION OF KING

"However, the German Command agreed to the Belgian proposal and the Belgian Army ceased to resist the enemy's will at 4 o'clock this morning. I have no intention of suggesting to the House that we should attempt at this moment to pass judgment on the action of the King of the Belgians, in his capacity as Commander-in-Chief of the Belgian Army."

"This Army has fought very bravely and has both suffered and inflicted heavy losses. The Belgian Government has dissociated themselves from the act of the King and, declaring itself to be the only legal Government of Belgium, has formally announced its resolve to continue the war at the side of the Allies who came to the aid of Belgium on her urgent appeal."

"SENSE OF BROTHERHOOD. 'Whatever may be our feelings with regard to the facts so far as they are known to us, we must remember that the sense of brotherhood between the many peoples, who have fallen under the power of the aggressor, and those who still confront him, will play its part in better days than those through which we are passing. The British and French Armies are fighting with the utmost discipline and tenacity. I shall, of course, abstain from giving any particulars of what, with the powerful assistance of the Royal Navy and Royal Air Force, they are doing, or hope to do. 'I expect to make a statement to the House on the general position when the result of the intense struggle, now going on, can be known and measured. HARD TIDINGS. 'This will not, perhaps, be until the beginning of next week. Meanwhile the House should prepare itself for hard and heavy tidings. I have only to add that nothing which may happen in this battle can in any way relieve us of our duty to defend (cheers) the world cause to which we have vowed ourselves, nor should it destroy our confidence in our power to make our way, as on former occasions in our history, through disaster and grief to the ultimate defeat of our enemies (loud cheers). FRINGE NOT TOUCHED. Mr. H. E. Lees-Smith, on behalf of the Labour Party, thanked the Premier for his statement, and said: 'As he is to make a further statement next week this is not the time for any discussion upon it. 'I will confine myself to a single observation; that whatever he may have to tell us in the next few days, weeks or months, we have not yet touched the fringe of the resolution of this country. COUNTRY'S SENTIMENT. Sir Percy Harris, speaking for the Liberal Party, said that the dignified statement by the Prime Minister reflects the sentiment not only of the whole House but of the whole country. There were no other speeches and the House then proceeded to other business."

NOT THE SLIGHTEST REASON FOR PANIC

LONDON, May 28 (BWS)—Broadcasting at 1 p.m. (B.S.T.), the Minister of Information, Mr. A. Duff Cooper, referring to the Belgian decision, said that we should not attempt at present to pass judgment on it.

Mr. Duff Cooper proceeded: "We know the Belgian Army has been fighting very bravely against tremendous odds. The situation in which the B.E.F. suddenly finds itself is one of extreme gravity. There is not the slightest reason for anything in the nature of panic."

"Whatever may be the outcome of this immediate battle, there should be no lack of confidence."

AUSTRALIAN WAR LOAN

It is announced in Canberra says Reuter, that it has been decided to float a Commonwealth interest free loan of £5,000,000 to enable those desiring doing so to assist in the war effort.

A new £10,000,000 loan has been approved by the Loan Council and will bear interest at 2½ per cent. for short term and 2½ per cent. for long term. The loan will be issued at par.

FRENCH PREMIER CONDEMNS KING LEOPOLD'S SURRENDER

Allied Troops Continue Battle In North Under Gen. Blanchard

Britain and France stand alone now to oppose the Nazi invaders of the Low Countries and France. This is resultant on the order given by King Leopold of the Belgians to his Army yesterday to lay down their arms and capitulate to an enemy against whom the Belgian monarch and his Government had appealed to the Allies for assistance.

The Belgian Government and the Belgian people, however, to whom the announcement came with as great a shock as it did to the rest of the civilised world, have refused to recognise the Royal capitulation and have declared their intention of forming a new Army and to continue the fight against the Germans alongside their Allies.

THE EFFECT OF THE BELGIAN KING'S DECISION GIVES THE GERMAN TROOPS A CLEAR PASSAGE TO THE COASTAL PORT OF DUNKIRK AND THE SITUATION WHICH IMMEDIATELY PRECEDED THIS STEP WAS AS FOLLOWS:

The Allied forces were divided into two groups. The French troops were successfully holding the lines of the Somme and Aisne and the Maginot Line, while in the North, the Belgian Army and the British Expeditionary Force, together with some French divisions, were engaged in the defence of Belgium. The latter army was under the command of General Blanchard, a 63-year-old French Royalist who is known as a grim fighter who never gives in, however critical the situation.

The order to the Belgian troops, who were fighting with the British and French, to lay down their arms was given without consultation with the British and French Commanders in the Northern sector and has roused resentment in British and French military circles.

The French Prime Minister, who announced the Belgian monarch's decision to capitulate, reiterated the determination of the French and British troops to continue the struggle with grim determination and expressed the quiet confidence of the peoples of the Allied countries to meet the new situation.

Reaction to the Belgian decision in the United States has increased the demand for even greater aid to the Allies in the matter of planes, food, medicine and other war material, while anxiety for the position of the Allies has also been expressed in pessimistic quarters.

There was, however, an entire absence of panic both in England and France when the news was announced and further developments are calmly awaited.

Staggering Announcement In Broadcast By Reynaud

THE STAGGERING ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE BELGIAN ARMY, UNDER KING LEOPOLD, HAD SURRENDERED TO THE GERMANS WITHOUT WARNING THE FRENCH AND BRITISH COMMANDS WAS MADE IN A BROADCAST SPEECH BY M. PAUL REYNAUD, THE FRENCH PRIME MINISTER, YESTERDAY MORNING, SAYS A REUTER MESSAGE.

Explaining the position, M. Reynaud said that the German thrust forced its way between our army which thus found itself split into two groups, one in the north and the other in the south.

In the south French divisions are holding a new front on the Somme and the Aisne, adjoining the intact Maginot Line.

In the north are a group of three Allied armies, the Belgian, the B.E.F. and some French divisions. This group of three armies is commanded by Gen. Blanchard. It was provisioned through Dunkirk. The British and French armies defended this port in the south and in the east, the Belgian Army being in the north.

MIDST OF BATTLE. The Belgian Army has now suddenly, and unconditionally, capitulated in the midst of the battle on the order of its King and without having warned their French and British comrades in arms, and opening the road to Dunkirk for the German divisions.

"Eighteen days ago the same King addressed to us an appeal for help. To this appeal I responded according to the plan drawn up by the Allied General Staff since December last," added the Premier.

"Thus, in the rage of the battle, the same King Leopold, the Second of the Belgians, who until May 10 (before the invasion) had pretended to attach to Germany's words the same value as that of the Allies, has, without warning Gen. Blanchard, without consideration, without a word for the French and British soldiers who had come to help his country in response to his anxious appeal, laid down arms. This is a fact without precedent in history."

"The Belgian Government informed me that the decision of their King was taken against the

All Belgian Resistance Not Ended

Struggle Will Be Continued

PARIS, May 28 (Reuter).—It is officially stated that, as soon as the Belgian Ministers learned of King Leopold's decision, they met during the night to discuss the situation.

The Royal decision was considered unconstitutional and the Government proposes to continue the struggle.

The Ministers met again today with the President of the Senate and the President of the Chamber present, to decide what measures were called for in the circumstances.

The surrender by King Leopold does not end all Belgian resistance. Two days ago a Belgian Minister stated that a second Belgian Army was being trained in France.

When Belgium was invaded the home defence numbered 700,000 men and all other men not old enough to serve, or exempted from military service, were sent to make their way to a foreign country. They are now in France and are training in military centres.

Their exact number is not known but there are many thousands and they will be of invaluable help to the Allies in the line to the east and west and across northern France.

FIGHT CONTINUED

PARIS, May 28 (Reuter).—A communique states: "The military situation has become graver in an unexpected manner in the north, as the result of the capitulation of King Leopold of the Belgians, whose army was engaged at the side of the French and British."

"The latter are facing up to the situation and are continuing the fight."

"On the rest of the front there is nothing important to report."

More R.A.F. Personnel Decorated

More Royal Air Force personnel were decorated by the King in a hangar of the Bomber Command in East Anglia yesterday, says Reuter.

Five of the men received the Distinguished Flying Cross while two sergeant observers were decorated with the Distinguished Flying Medal.

Many of them, twelve hours earlier, had been bombing enemy objectives.

Great Indignation Against King Leopold

PARIS, May 28 (Reuter).—The Belgian colony in Paris and members of the Belgian Government there are displaying great indignation against King Leopold, according to information from authoritative French quarters. A Belgian senator is quoted as saying the King's act constitutes a "unique stain upon our national history."

Correspondents of Belgian newspapers in France have issued the following statement: "King Leopold has capitulated. The King has betrayed his country and fore sworn his oath to the Constitution. We ask Frenchmen not to judge us after the fashion of our Kings. The King is dead. Long live Belgium."

TREASONABLE AOT. A military spokesman said: "The treasonable act of King Leopold is all the more grave in view of the fact that it came at a time when the Allied armies were in a difficult, though not desperate position."

TYPICAL OF GERMAN METHODS OF TERRORISM

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Mr. Clement R. Attlee, Lord Privy Seal, replying to a question, said that the bombing of hospital ships and the machine-gunning of ambulances in France, taken in conjunction with the deliberate attacks by German aircraft on refugees on the roads of Belgium and France, might be taken as typical of the methods of terrorism pursued by the German Government.

His Majesty's Government held themselves free to take such action as they might consider appropriate, but it was not their intention to exact retribution from the wounded, or women and children. (Cheers.)

FLEET AIR ARM

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter).—The Air Ministry announced that units of the Fleet Air Arm, operating with the R.A.F. Coastal Command, made a series of heavy and effective attacks yesterday on enemy positions on the French and Belgian coasts.

Evacuation Of British Troops From Boulogne Told By Eye-Witness

LONDON, MAY 28 (REUTER).—HOW DESTROYERS EVACUATED BRITISH TROOPS FROM BOULOGNE "under hellish fire" was described in detail by a naval eye-witness today.

He related how a demolition party was detailed to be ready to move at two hours' notice. Embarking in lorries, a combined party of seamen, Royal Marines and small detachments of Royal Engineers, was taken by road to a port where they boarded a destroyer and rushed across the Channel, reaching the main jetty at Boulogne in the forenoon.

The naval party was landed to hold the railway station, fit demolition charges and earmark bridges, trains, lock-gates, etc., which should be destroyed when the time came. This demolition was undertaken at the request of the French authorities.

The seamen, some of them quite young, and who have never been under fire, were in the railway station fitting detonators to their explosive charge when it came under high explosive shell fire from enemy field guns.

The Germans were gradually closing in on the town with light mechanised vehicles, followed by tanks and motorised field guns. German aircraft were busy using bombs and machine-guns. Their attacks were intermittent throughout the day and, at one time, there were 60 machines overhead.

Owing to the position of Germans all around the town, it had been impossible to tend to field guns or other assistance. Consequently the troops could not hold out indefinitely against the enemy's armoured vehicles.

Small parties of Germans were already coming down the streets on the outskirts of the town and it was decided to shorten the defending perimeter by a slight British withdrawal.

AT THE KING'S

Stellar names, high in Hollywood's acting ranks, feature the new Warner Bros. picture, "The Angels Wash Their Faces," which opens at the King's Theatre today. Featured in the production, which tells the story of a group of tenement slum youngsters, are Ann Sheridan, the Dead End Kids, Ronald Reagan, Bonita Granville, Frankie Thomas, Henry O'Neill, Eduardo Ciannelli and others.

"The Angels Wash Their Faces" provides Miss Sheridan with her first sympathetic role, that of a social worker.

The Dead End Kids depart from the type role with which they have been identified and appear this time on the side of good citizenship.

Playing the male lead is the handsome Ronald Reagan as the deputy district attorney who aids the Dead End Kids in their efforts and with Ann Sheridan furnishes the romantic interest.

Based on an idea by Jonathan Finn, the screen play was written by Michael Fessier, Niven Busch and Robert Buckner. Ray Enright directed.

JAPANESE CUT OFF IN TSAOYANG SECTOR

Supplies Low; Chinese Troops On All Sides

FANCHENG, May 27 (Central)—Over 10,000 Japanese troops are beleaguered in the TsaoYang sector in north Hupoh, according to military advices. With their rear cut off and their supplies running low the Japanese there are making desperate attempts to break through the tightening Chinese ring.

About 3,000 Japanese withdrawing in a southwesterly direction were overtaken and attacked on May 25, by the Chinese at Fancheng. Retreating further southwest, they were intercepted at Palshan by the Chinese troops stationed there.

Another Japanese unit fleeing from TsaoYang was surrounded by the Chinese at Chenchiatzi and Fanchiatzi, both southwest of TsaoYang, on the same day. They fought desperately to break loose but without success.

JAPANESE INTERCEPTED

On the Sianyang-Hwayuan highway many fleeing Japanese units were also intercepted.

Meanwhile, Japanese reinforcements sent to TsaoYang were halted at Wanshanling, southeast of TsaoYang. They failed to establish contact with their troops beleaguered at TsaoYang.

In north Honan the Chinese made a surprise attack at Tsinyang on May 25. Besides inflicting heavy casualties, they captured a Japanese officer. He is being escorted to a concentration camp in the rear.

ENGLAND'S SUPPLIES

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Lord Woolton, the Minister of Food, announced yesterday that the country has been divided into 800 self-containing areas, each with one main and one "buffer" depot of food, making 1,600 depots in all.

These 800 areas, said Lord Woolton, had sufficient supplies of essentials to feed the population for a few weeks without any help from outside.

Lord Woolton's announcement is a carefully-prepared scheme to ensure an effective maintenance of food distribution in the event of enemy attacks.

The broad basis of the scheme is that instead of keeping huge stores of foodstuffs in ports until needed and thus causing congestion, besides exposing them to the risk of enemy action, the foodstuffs are now being stored at a very large number of smaller centres.

Right Men Chosen

BRITISH STAFF APPOINTMENTS

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—In connection with the appointments of General Sir Edmund Ironside as Commander-in-Chief of the Home Force, and General Sir John Dill as Chief of the Imperial General Staff, the British press welcomes this as evidence that the right men have been chosen to fill these positions.

The possibility of a German invasion is faced by the British press.

However, the Yorkshire Post says that if Hitler invades Britain he will be taking one of the greatest gambling risks of his career.

General Sir Edmund Ironside's task will be one of extreme difficulty and responsibility, says The Times.

General Sir John Dill, with his habitual coolness, was the inevitable choice for the position of Chief of the Imperial General Staff.

The Daily Mail says that we realise to the full extent of the peril and we are facing it.

Victory lies that way. We have also had all the warning we need about fifth columns and have taken the necessary measures to destroy them.

WAR OFFICE CHANGES

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—The War Office announces that Lieut. General Robert Hadden, Haining, G.O.C. Western Command, since 1939, is appointed Vice-Chief of Imperial General Staff.

General Sir Henry Jackson is appointed G.O.C. Western Command.

Major-General B.K.T. Page, Commander of the 18th Division, is appointed Chief of General Staff, Home Forces, with the acting rank of Lieutenant-General.

Egypt Is Ready

WILL FIGHT TO LAST MAN

CAIRO, May 28 (Reuter)—The extent of Egypt's preparedness is shown in a despatch sent to the B.B.C. by its Middle East correspondent, Mr. Richard Dimbleby from Cairo.

The British Egyptian armies have left that city, he says, and have taken up action stations.

The motorised units of the infantry and aircraft are all ready. They are being added to all the time in manpower and equipment.

WILL FIGHT TO LAST

The Minister of National Defence says that, unlike their officers, the private soldiers are not much interested in events on the Western Front.

However, they are very much concerned with the defence of their own country.

They have been told that they must fight to the last man and they are willing to do so.

They are now out in the Western Desert living in huts and tents and even in the open.

MORALE HIGH

They are on the door-step of trouble. They are ready to deal with any invasion from land or from the air.

Internal precautions are the sole concern of the Egyptian Government which has taken full steps to deal with any "Quislings" or fifth columnists.

The population is easily depressed or cheered by the news. Therefore there is a benevolent censorship over both the incoming and outgoing news.

The people have, however, been receiving full information about the Allied situation on the Western Front and the fact that the struggle is a stern one has done much to tone-up the public opinion and morale which is certainly high.

NO TELEGRAMS FOR TIME BEING

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—The War Office announces that in view of the heavy military traffic, it has been found necessary to cancel temporarily the telegraph service to the B.E.F. in France and make certain amendments in the postal service.

No telegrams may be sent and post offices were instructed to refuse parcels and packets as well as

AIR FORCE OPERATIONS CONTINUE UNABATED

Medium Bombers Wrought Extensive Damage

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—The Air Ministry announces that the R.A.F. on Sunday attacked aerodromes in Flushing, Brussels and Antwerp.

Operations also continued against the enemy's communications in Belgium and western Germany.

Hits were made on railway junctions, sidings, and convoys of armoured vehicles.

Earlier in the evening, much damage was done by medium bombers to a concentration of enemy mechanised vehicles near Boulogne.

Yesterday, bombing operations were carried out against various objectives in Flanders.

MANY ENEMY LOSSES

So far all our aircraft have returned safely.

Preliminary reports show that 28 enemy aircraft were destroyed or seriously damaged by our aircraft today.

One patrol of Defiant shot down five enemy bombers.

Five of our fighters are reported missing.

TRAFFIC DISORGANISED

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—The Air Ministry states that rail and river traffic were disorganised over a wide area from the Rhineland to the French frontier during Sunday night's activities by the Bomber Command.

Typical was the record of one heavy bomber which, within half an hour, scored direct hits on a mechanised column near Brussels, extinguished a searchlight by bombing it and another by machine-gun fire, wrecked a railway line and bridge, and demolished a machine-gun post on a hill-top with a salvo of three bombs.

Other bombers scored direct hits on a railway track south of Aachen. They also wrecked a railway junction in Belgium, where the bombs which fell on a nearby wood caused exceptionally heavy explosions as it an ammunition store had been hit.

Two heavy bombs struck a convoy of 24 vehicles and the bursts were followed by two violent explosions and a blinding flash lit the country for miles.

Not Liked In Berlin

BUT THAT WAS EXPECTED!

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—The Berlin newspaper, Basler Nachrichten states that Berlin has reported an unprecedented and violent reaction in Germany against His Majesty, the King's Empire broadcast.

The newspaper considers that it can only be that His Majesty's words exercised a profound influence on world opinion.

A REAL PROBLEM

The Gazette de Lausanne says that a delicate point for the Germans is to plan the continued supply of munitions and petrol which have been seriously hampered by the British Air Force.

According to experts, the German troops are using petrol and crude oil in astronomical quantities to such an extent that they will encounter serious difficulties if the battle last for a long time and with the same intensity.

Another factor which is generally regarded as decisive is the morale of the troops.

In Germany it is believed that the tenacity of the French, British and Belgian troops can be conceded to nobody in the world.

JUST LIKE FISHING TALES, THESE EXPAND

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—On Sunday, the Germans put out certain lies about having bombed British aerodromes in England.

These lies are growing by leaps and bounds.

The latest version says that several Channel ports have been bombed.

These stories are entirely untrue.

The people on the south coast are in a position to discount them from their own knowledge.

On Friday night, as already announced, a few bombs fell in the country districts of Yorkshire, East Anglia and Essex.

Little damage was done and only eight civilians were injured.

"WE SHALL HOLD OUT..."

"WE SHALL HOLD OUT..."

"WE SHALL CONQUER..."

With this courageous statement of the French Prime Minister before us and with the full knowledge that such words are not idly spoken in moments of great anxiety, we feel sure that the shock which people in Hongkong experienced last night, in keeping with the painful impression caused in nearly every country in the world over the announcement of the surrender of the Belgian Army to the enemy, will be greatly assuaged. The real cause which led the King of the Belgians, who was leading his gallant troops as bravely as his father did twenty-five years ago, to capitulate to the Germans is still not clear, but from the statement made by M. Reynaud on the subject, it would seem that the Nazis have once again succeeded with cunning brutality in using their frightfulness to overcome the principles of honour of a people whom they want only set out to destroy. The fact that this grave decision was taken by King Leopold as the Commander-in-Chief of the Belgian Army without the slightest attempt to consult his British and French Allies who responded so readily to his plea for help when the German hordes poured into his territory certainly lends colour to the assumption made by a French military spokesman that, unfortunate though it is, the probability of betrayal cannot be entirely disregarded.

WHATEVER the reasons, however, and we shall no doubt hear a great deal more about it in course of the next few days, the surprise which followed the announcement has only resulted in a greater resolve by the British and French to meet the new situation which has been created by the Belgian decision. That the position has been rendered grave by this development cannot be denied and pessimism abroad cannot be entirely avoided. The French Prime Minister, however, rallied his countrymen with the most eloquent words he chose to make known to his people and the world of what had happened. And thus, in the face of a dire peril which confronts them, the British and French armies will meet the fury of the Nazi hordes, that Herr Hitler is bent on sacrificing to gain his unholy aims, with renewed vigour and with that quiet confidence which marked the words of the French Premier. The British Prime Minister, who also made a statement on the new development in the House of Commons yesterday, adopted the same tone of calmness in declaring to the world at large that the spirit to defeat the hideous Nazi terror has not been diminished in the slightest degree.

IT WAS NOT, of course, possible to hear how the rest of the world has reacted to the Belgian decision. The only comment available last night was from the United States where, in spite of the fact that anxiety appears to have increased, the news of the Belgian surrender was the signal for greater demands for unstinted support for the Allies in the matter of war materials. Americans realise only too

HOW I FIND MALAYA

After An Absence Of 30 Years

BY DR. WU LIEN-TER

(Late Director of the Manchurian Plague Prevention Service and Director-General, National Quarantine Service of China).

A very misleading article on present conditions in Malaya has recently appeared in a Swatow paper. It has prompted me to reply, in defence of the British Government of the country, to which over a million Chinese (both local-born and China-born) owe their success and prosperity.

It is only through the sympathy and cooperation of the British administration that it has been possible for overseas Chinese in Malaya, during the past three years, to remit tens of millions of dollars for the relief of suffering in various parts of their beloved fatherland.

In 1930 the National Quarantine Service was organised by me, and a series of quarantine stations came into being, from Tientsin in the north to Canton in the South, and hospitals have thus been constructed and staffed, but since the Japanese invasion these have either been destroyed or taken over by the enemy.

In 1937, after thirty years of continuous service, I retired, and was proud to receive an autographed portrait from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, as well as a very kind telegram of appreciation of my services to the country. I then decided to settle down in Malaya, the land of my birth.

FAIR GOVERNMENT

During my thirty years of work for the Chinese Government I visited almost every country of the globe and attended over twenty international conferences—in London, Washington, Geneva, Paris, The Hague, Tokyo, Calcutta, Java, Singapore, and other centres. I have studied different colonial administrations, and have studied both governing and governed in Japan, Korea, India, Burma, Indo-China, the Netherlands, Indies, Canada, the United States, the Philippines, Hawaii, and elsewhere.

Nowhere, I declare, have I seen more evidence of a sincere desire on the part of government to be fair and tolerant to the governed than in the British Colonies and Dependencies and the two American possessions.

NEWLY BUILT CITIES

Singapore and Penang are in great measure newly built cities, with ample wharfrage for ships from all parts of the world. There are many new roads, magnificent public buildings, crowded amusement parks, gay dance halls, excellent civil amenities, a thriving Medical and Dental College where local-born and others can obtain first-class professional training. Raffles College which has every prospect of becoming a full-fledged university within ten years. Education has been much liberalised, and other signs of progress are evident.

SOCIAL PROGRESS

There is social and political progress, too, with increased representation of the communities on the Councils and municipal bodies. Opium farms and public brothels have long abolished, and health, infant welfare and V. D. clinics are doing valuable work for the people. Malaya are now occupying important Civil Service posts, and Chinese also may be seen sitting on the magisterial bench, and serving in other official posts. One veteran Chinese lawyer has received a knighthood, and high honours have been conferred upon other Chinese in recognition of public services. Indians hold responsible positions in the railway and medical services.

FREE INSTITUTIONS

I cannot do better than close this article with an extract from a broadcast talk on March 29, by Mr. Tan Cheng Lock, C.B.E., a prominent resident of Malacca, expressing the typical views of a Malayan Chinese:

"The British Empire will persist and endure because its institutions are free institutions. It will survive as one of the world's guardians of liberty. The Straits Chinese have formed a continuous colony in this country and made it their permanent home for over five hundred years, of which the last 120 have been under British rule. In the present, as in the former crises of the British Empire, the Straits Chinese have staunchly, steadfastly and solidly stood for Great Britain, and have been heart and soul in support of her."

CORRESPONDENCE

WAR NEWS

The Editor, Hongkong Daily Press

Sir,—I have read with interest and a good deal of disgust the correspondence which has recently been appearing in a morning contemporary relative to the question of scare headlines used on posters and on the front pages of a local newspaper.

Unfortunately, it seems to be only too true that scare headlines and sensational announcements on posters sell newspapers. I do, however, feel that a newspaper owes a public duty to its readers and that it should, wherever possible, do its best to reassure them and to refrain from enlarging on alarmist reports.

From today no morning daily newspaper posters will be issued. (April 27, 1940).

I understand that this question has already been dealt with in London where newspapers are no longer permitted to put out any posters and I am enclosing an illustration taken from a leading home paper, which you are at liberty to use with this letter if you think desirable.

May I suggest that the same course be adopted here and that the authorities be asked to temporarily pass a law forbidding all newspapers from putting out posters. No question of misleading the public for the sake of selling papers would then arise.

I am a very great advocate of the "Freedom of the Press," but I am also fully conscious that these are unusual times which call for unusual restrictions.

Yours etc.,
H. L. MURROW

WEDDING AT REGISTRY

The wedding took place at the Registry, Supreme Court, yesterday between Mr. Feliciano Jover Ledesma, lawyer, residing at St. Francis Hotel, and Miss Lilla Chua, alias Chua Yu-ty.

Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith, Registrar of Marriages, officiated.

well how grave their own position will be unless the European nightmare is ended and clamour for American intervention in the war on the side of the Allies will be a natural sequel to the latest development. If the news of the Belgian decision came with staggering suddenness to the peoples abroad, the sense of numbness with which the Belgian people themselves received the decision was greater. They and their Government lost no time in promptly dissociating themselves from the step taken by King Leopold. That step, they correctly affirmed, was completely unconstitutional and the people and the Government have proudly declared their intention to carry on the struggle against Herr Hitler and his brute force. Counting a population of nearly eight-and-a-half million people, who so undauntedly faced the Teutonic menace in 1914, this resolve will show the Nazis that the subjugation of the country and its inhabitants is still far from being accomplished. Along with the British and French Allies, the Belgian people declare: "We shall hold out.... We shall conquer."

UNSTINTED UNITED STATES' AID FOR ALLIES IS CALLED

NEW YORK, May 28 (Reuter)—Unstinted United States' aid for the Allies, including planes, food and medicine, as the immediate needs, is called for in a New York Times dispatch from Mr. Hamilton Armstrong, editor of Foreign Affairs, who is now in Paris.

Mr. Armstrong says, "If there is a single reserve American Army plane that can be spared it ought to be flown or shipped across the Atlantic tomorrow."

"Although not a military critic, I am confident that the French and British can hold the gates but for them to continue to hold them, for them to mass the power for a final victory they need our money, our planes, our supplies, our encouragement and our love."

AMERICAN SYMPATHY FOR THE ALLIED CAUSE

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Commenting on United States isolationism, the Daily Telegraph writes it would be premature to forecast the practical consequences of the sympathy now being developed in America towards the Allied cause. The Administration, no less than the public, remains solidly against the despatch of an expeditionary force to Europe.

Even proposals mooted for the grant of credits to the Allies and the sale of United States army and navy planes are probably in advance of public opinion. Nevertheless there are undoubtedly signs of a strong movement towards non-belligerent intervention on behalf of the Allies.

DIRECT ASSISTANCE
Active measures have already been taken to speed up completion of Allied orders for aircraft. The question of sending more direct assistance is likely to depend on the course of events in the coming weeks.

The Times welcomes the appointment of General Ironside as Commander-in-Chief of the home forces but advocates creation of a post with great powers for the unification and centralisation of authority.

NO EXCESSIVE CONCENTRATION
The briefest reflection shows the variety of activities the home defence must co-ordinate. Unity of purpose and policy in the home defence command entails the possession of power and a combined staff to direct the military and air forces, the naval and auxiliary coastal defences, civil defence commissions, police and local defence volunteers.

He should be directly responsible to the Minister of Defence, who is the Prime Minister. Preparedness in this sense does not and must not involve excessive concentration.

BRACED TO TAKE THEIR SHARE
First object of greater security at the base is greater security for operations overseas. That is the right and only way to regard it. This island cannot be made immune from all the hazards of modern war and does not expect immunity. Its people are braced to take their share, well knowing that victory is not won by passive defence and that the precautions to increase personal or territorial security are merely one means to the full development of industrial, naval and military power for the positive overthrow of the enemy.

CABLE NEWS IN BRIEF

ROME, May 28 (Reuter)—The Italian press shows signs that a little more attention is being made to a more sober appreciation of the situation. Writing in the Telegrafo, Signor Ansaldo says that the war will not end until Germany has invaded and captured Britain, while Signor Gayda does not think that war is near its end.

GIBRALTAR, May 28 (Reuter)—It was officially announced yesterday that curfew will be imposed in Gibraltar from tomorrow between 1.30 p.m. and 5.30 a.m. and only members of His Majesty's forces and men in uniform will be permitted out of doors between these hours.

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Another 600,000 men will register for the armed forces before the end of June under an order just issued requiring the 1911 class to register on June 15 and 1919 class on June 22.

OTTAWA, May 28 (Reuter)—Mr. Ian MacKenzie, the Canadian Defence Minister, in a broadcast last night, said: "Canada must give all if all is needed. This war must be won for Canada as well as for the British Empire." He fore-shadowed conception of the nation's resources.

SHANGHAI, May 28 (Reuter)—Rumours circulated in Shanghai that the Japanese have despatched 150,000 troops to Hainan Island, preparatory to invading the Netherlands East Indies, are seen by military observers as unfounded, says the Shanghai Shun Pao. It is pointed out that after their direct defeat at the hands of the Chinese in Honan and Hupeh, the Japanese have found it hard to call reinforcements, much less send a reserve of 150,000 troops to Hainan Island, the paper says.

PARIS, May 28 (Reuter)—The Council of Ministers heard a statement by General Weyand, the Allied Generalissimo, at a two-hour meeting under the chairmanship of President Lebrun last night. The Premier, M. Reynaud, is to make a broadcast declaration today at 7.30 a.m.

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Lord Beaverbrook, Minister of Aircraft Production, announces that he has appointed an Emergency Committee to deal with the production of aircraft equipment. The Committee is as follows: Mr. C. J. Stewart (Chairman), Sir Allan Gordon Smith, and Mr. F. J. E. Brake.

WASHINGTON, May 28 (Reuter)—President Roosevelt has nominated Mr. J. Pierrepont Moffat as U.S. Minister to Canada in succession to Mr. James Cromwell, who recently resigned.

Paving The Way For The Second Lusitania?

NEW YORK, May 28 (Reuter)—Officials of the United States Lines stated that they had not been officially informed of the Berlin report published in the newspapers here alleging that the safety of the refugee liner, President Roosevelt, is threatened.

The officials added that they are not going to wireless the ship's master about the report which was issued by the German official news agency in Berlin.

The German report said that "trustworthy sources" in Boston, Massachusetts, revealed that the British were planning to blow up the liner during the return trip to the United States, loaded with Americans. The British would then charge it against Germany, thus arousing American sentiment to bring the United States into the war on the side of the Allies.

MUST CLEAR UP UNCERTAINTY

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Commenting on Sir Stafford Cripps' visit to Moscow, the Times writes:

"If Russia is committed to assist blockade, then little or nothing is expected from friendly negotiation."

"If on the other hand, Russia's policy is conditioned on serving her own and British interests, then the way is possibly open for an agreement useful, on a modest scale, to both."

"The first task is to clear up, without further delay, the uncertainty existing on this vital point."

FOR INTERNMENT OF WOMEN

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Port Erin, on the Isle of Man, has been taken over in its entirety by the Government for the accommodation of German and Austrian women and children who are to be interned under the new order of the Home Secretary. No civilians will be permitted in Port Erin unless they have business there.

Russian Paper Says That China Must Win War Against Japan

MOSCOW (By Mail)—Under the headline "Chinese People Fight For Their Fatherland," the newspaper Trud published an article which says that, launching a predatory war against the Chinese people, Japanese imperialists expected to end it in three months, says the Central News. But their expectations were exploded. War has been going on for almost three years and Japan will hardly be able to recover from her losses in 10 or 15 years.

The results of the third year of the war clearly show that Japan's attacking forces have suffered a setback and weakened and that the initiative of military operations is gradually passing to the Chinese army.

A COUNTRY UNIFIED

The article speaks of the conditions under which China could come out victorious. "Universal

CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR THE JAPANESE

Chinese Adopt Mobile Tactics Of Warfare

YUNGYUN, May 28 (Central)—The Japanese defeat in the Tsung-fa sector is reviewed in a military dispatch. It is said that since May 14 between 6,000 and 7,000 Japanese infantrymen and 1,000 cavalrymen and artillerymen have been thrown into the field as reinforcements.

In an effort to trap and annihilate the invaders the Chinese adopted mobile tactics to isolate and wear out the Japanese units. A Chinese force heavily damaged the highway north-east of Tsung-fa to cut their supply while other units made swift attacks here and there. The Japanese were isolated in two groups and closely surrounded.

RING TIGHTENED

On May 25 the Chinese regained many vantage points north and west of Leungchow which is situated north-east of Tsung-fa, tightening the iron ring.

Further Japanese reinforcements were rushed up in an attempt to turn the tide of war only to fall into the Chinese trap.

On the morning of May 26 the Chinese launched a pincer attack from the north and south and challenged the enemy to hand-to-hand combats. The Japanese lines wavered.

Continuing their relentless assaults, the Chinese recaptured Leungchow and other points south in the afternoon. The Japanese retreated southward. They were pursued from the north by the Chinese troops which recovered Leungchow and intercepted by other Chinese units operating to the southwest of Leungchow.

It is estimated that the Japanese suffered about 3,000 casualties, including a detachment commander, Yamamoto, killed. Scores of Japanese officers and men were taken prisoner.

Our Modest Airmen

"JUST A BIT OF LUCK"

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—A Flight Lieutenant, who had been with a squadron of fighters hofely engaged in the air battles along the French coast in the last few days, gave an account of the squadron's experiences in a broadcast last night.

He said that until the German invasion of Belgium and Holland, not one in his squadron had as much as a German plane. In the last two days alone, they had shot down 15 definitely and probably another five.

PILOT SAFE

Two of their machines failed to return but one of the pilots was known to be safe.

In one engagement they got six Messerschmitts and four bombers. Immediately afterwards he found a Messerschmitt swooping on his tail. He waited for the attack and gave him a burst from the rear gun at about 200 yards, hitting his petrol tank. He then swerved from under the German and caught him again as he was going down.

"It was just a bit of luck, he modestly said. "It might easily have been me."

The weekly return, showing the number of refugees and destitute accommodated in the Government Camps, states that for the week ended May 25, there was a total of 10,283 as against 9,972 for the previous week. The figure includes 710 soldiers in the Argyll Street Camp, in addition to 20 who are reported to be in hospital.

MORE JAPANESE RUTHLESSNESS

CHUNGKING, May 28 (Reuter)—Futan University, which is housed in the same campus as the Futan Middle School, was hit by 20 bombs during the recent raids on Chungking by Japanese bombers. It is now learned.

The school buildings, including the dormitory, are said to have been wrecked, while several hundreds of inhabitants in the vicinity are reported to have been killed or wounded.

It is not yet known if there were any students among the casualties.

A printing press nearby was also hit and demolished, 20 printers being killed.

Many bombs landed in a crowded village nearby, killing and wounding hundreds.

The actual number of casualties has not yet been ascertained.

JAPANESE RAIDERS BEATEN OFF

CHUNGKING, May 28 (Central)—The Chinese Air Force and ground defence units repulsed Japanese bombers which raided the wartime capital yesterday.

Chinese pursuits subjected the enemy machines to furious machine-gun fire, forcing them to break formation, while Chinese ground forces kept up a steady barrage of anti-aircraft fire.

All bombs released by the raiders landed in the outskirts, exacting a heavy civilian toll. Altogether 160 Japanese machines took part in yesterday's raid.

JAPAN'S NEW CABINET

TOKYO, May 28 (Reuter)—An Inner Cabinet has been formed comprising Admiral Yonai (Premier), Mr. Hachiro Arita (Foreign Minister), General Hata (War Minister) and Vice-Admiral Yoshida (Navy Minister).

This has been actuated by the necessity to formulate carefully, and execute promptly, unified foreign and military policies vis-a-vis the new phase in the China Affair following the inauguration of the new Central Government in China, as well as the change in the international situation as a sequel to the rapid development of the European war.

The Inner Cabinet will meet twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday. The initial meeting is taking place today following the regular Cabinet session.

Great Future For Kweichow

KWEIYANG, May 28 (Central)—Great prospects are in store for Kweichow province, according to members of an inspection party sent out by the Control Yuan.

The party, led by Mr. Liu Chen-yu, has just returned here after visiting various districts in the province. They felt that the development of the province would best be done by first developing railway communication.

They said that the new hlien administrative system is being enforced in the province with satisfactory results and economic reconstruction is proceeding apace. The various hlien magistrates are working conscientiously.

unanimous feeling of his responsible Ministers. They added that they would put at the service of the common cause all the forces of their country, still at their disposal, and that they are willing to raise a new army and collaborate in the task of arming France.

"It is of our soldiers of whom we are thinking now. They are able to say that their honour is intact. They are accomplishing on all fronts, magnificent efforts."

"On every one of the 18 days of fighting they have shown a thousand examples of heroism. Young French generals, having hardly succeeded their senior, have already covered themselves with glory."

"Our leaders and our soldiers form a bloc in which the country has complete confidence and which evokes the admiration of the world."

DARK DAYS COME

"We knew that dark days would come and they have come. France has been invaded a hundred times but never has she been defeated. The courageous people of our north must remember this."

"Out of the trials through which we are passing a new soul of France, of a France greater than ever, will be forged."

"Our faith in victory is unshaken, the strength of every soldier, of every Frenchman and of every French woman has grown tenfold. Misfortune has always made France greater. Never has she been more unanimous than today."

"On a new line established by our great leader, Gen. Weyand, in full accord with Marshal Petain, on the Somme and the Aisne," concluded the Premier, "we shall hold out and, because we shall have held out, we shall conquer."

BELGIAN ENVOY SAD

Special to H.K. Daily Press
LONDON, May 28 (Havas)—An enormous crowd gathered in front of the Belgian Embassy, commenting on the King's betrayal.

M. Marchinnes, the Belgian Ambassador, arrived at the Embassy at 10 a.m. with the saddest looking expression, but refused to receive the press.

NEUTRALITY ACT DEAD LETTER

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Commenting on President Roosevelt's speech, the Daily Telegraph states that all shades of opinion are suddenly awakening to the seriousness of the menace which a Nazified Europe would portend for their own country.

It would be premature to forecast the practical consequences of the sympathy now developing in America to the Allies' cause.

In spirit, if not in force, the Neutrality Act is becoming more and more a dead letter. The question of rendering more direct assistance is likely to depend on the course of events during the coming weeks.

The Daily Mail says that the Allies can reasonably count on more material assistance. But the United States is not going to jump to war.

THE R.A.F. GOES "A-VISITING"

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Planes of the Coastal Command which flew over Rotterdam on Saturday, report that fuel dumps which were set on fire several days before were still burning.

They went on to "visit" other military objectives and when they left at dawn, they could see the fires they had started from thirty miles away.

In one case German troops crossing a bridge were hit by British bombs. The planes then went down low and the gunner completed the work of disorganising the column.

NAZI COMMUNIQUE

BERLIN, May 28 (Reuter)—The following communique was issued from Hitler's headquarters: "The Commander-in-Chief of the Belgians, impressed by the destructive effect of German arms, has decided to give up further senseless resistance. He has complied with the German order."

DUSSELDORF BOMBED

NEW YORK, May 28 (Reuter)—According to press reports here the Allies dropped bombs on Dusseldorf.

WHY ITALY WILL HAVE TO GET OFF THE FENCE

Benito Mussolini, son of a penniless blacksmith, once wrote: "I will make of my life a masterpiece." It is one of the few promises this 5ft. 6in. bundle of audacity ever kept.

Since he made himself an unchallenged boss of his country in 1922 by deserting his comrades of the Left and hiring his thugs to the Right, he has made three unprofitable wars—in Abyssinia, Spain and Albania, and has built up a raggle-taggie Empire.

Mussolini loathes the idea of growing old, will not have his age mentioned in Italian newspapers, and at 56 hopes he has still a long way to go.

FIVE FACTORS

But if he is to get anywhere in the Europe-to-be, he will have to come off the fence on which he has rested with considerable cunning since last September.

Recently with British blockade measures beginning to operate in the Adriatic Sea, the world's diplomats were trying anew to make up their minds which side of the fence he would jump.

Somewhere in one or more of five factors lay the answer: Mussolini's grip on the nation; His personal inclinations; Italy's economic fabric; Its strategic position; The men around the Duce.

ACTION

After seven months of ambiguous "non-belligerency," decisions were made last week by Mussolini, in consultation with his Cabinet and military chiefs, which caused many an eye to pop in the Chancelleries of Europe.

Since the war began, Italy has been quietly rearming, calling more men to the colours, strengthening national defences (including the German frontier), and generally getting ready to meet the conflict should it spread.

CLOSE TO HITLER

The Cabinet's new moves were in line with this policy. But they were more significant than those of any other neutral Power, because the Duce is closer to Adolf Hitler than any of his neighbours.

He can pick up the telephone in his 60-ft. by 40-ft. office any day and talk to the Fuehrer, and he recently talked to him in person on the Brenner Pass.

It was notable, therefore, that the first decisions taken by the Ministers since that meeting were all aimed at making the country still more ready for war.

A Bill was agreed on providing for mobilisation of all civilians from the age of 13 upwards.

Owners of iron railings were ordered to report their ownership, and be prepared to have their fences pulled down to be turned

MOST INTRIGUING

Most intriguing of the measures dealt with the reorganisation of the coastal artillery defence. This touched directly on the big international riddle.

If Italy plunged into the war on Germany's side it would need all the guns it could muster to protect its very long and vulnerable coast line from Allied naval attack.

The chance that the Duce will pick a war of his own is remote. Abyssinia was the last bit of Africa left untouched by the big Powers. He has a military springboard in Albania, but it gives him little choice of striking in a place where the Allies would be caught napping.

Neutrality goes down well with the mass of his subjects, but neither they nor he can avoid the basic problem of Italy. A nation as populous as that of France and with a far higher birth rate occupies arable territory one-third the size.

SAND AND DATES

Libya is largely sand and dates. Eritrea, on the Red Sea, is unfit climatically for even the sun-loving Italian peasant. Abyssinia would not have been ignored by other Powers if its mineral resources were not dubious, its natives savage, and its situation remote.

The Duce, who loved to lay the final brick when he was a fugitive and casual labourer in Switzerland, has reclaimed pestiferous swamps and built whole new towns in the homeland to give his proliferating millions more living space.

But there is still a painful lack of fertile ground, and the United States has stopped the old stream of Italian immigration.

Early in this war, the cute British Ambassador in Rome, Sir Percy Loraine, is supposed to have said that Italy was "in the bag," but there is some reason to suppose that the Duce's price to the Allies goes up with every week. Moreover, like able King Carol of Rumania, he probably insists on handling his reward in advance.

German Tactics In The Balkans

NEW "VICTIMS" WARNINGS

LONDON, May 6 (By Air Mail)—The exploitation by the Germans for propaganda purposes of their success in Norway and of the pretended superiority of air power over sea power goes hand in hand with a campaign of insinuation that the Allies are about to violate the neutrality of one or other of the Balkan countries in order to obtain there the victory which they failed to secure in Norway.

GREAT VARIETY

A great variety of newspaper stories have been concocted to convey this impression. One newspaper reports from Stockholm that British soldiers before embarking at Namsos told local Norwegians that they were now bound for the Mediterranean. Another reports the arrival in Athens of a sufficiently large batch of alleged pilots of the R.A.F., or of mysterious British "tourists" in Rumania.

The Allied naval concentration at Alexandria lends itself, of course, very conveniently to this interpretation, and it is reinforced by rumours—officially denied in Turkey—of the massing of Turkish troops on the Bulgarian frontier.

The tactics are familiar. When, immediately after their invasion of Denmark and Norway, the Nazis thought that the Dutch might apply to Great Britain and France for assistance, reports that a fleet of British transports was on the way to invade Holland were published in all the German newspapers.

It was a warning to the Dutch that if they dared to go even so far as to hold confidential staff talks with the Allies they might expect to be treated as an enemy.

by Germany. Similarly today, the reports of British activities in the Balkans are intended to frighten off the Greeks, Rumanians, and Yugoslavs from giving any military or naval facilities to Germany's enemies.

A HINT TO SPAIN

One may well believe that the Germans are sincere when they say that they do not want the war to spread to the Balkans, provided (the condition is all important) that they can get what they want from the Balkans. The Allies have announced a new diplomatic and commercial offensive in that quarter. Germany's first reply is the redoubled activity of the indefatigable Coudis, and this propaganda. Its sense is unmistakable.

It says to the Yugoslavs and Rumanians: "If you take the Allies' gold and then say you are unable to sell your copper and lead, your oil and fats, you do so at your peril. Remember, Germany's arm is long. See what has happened to Norway. Italy is our ally. She has a powerful air fleet of her own and our aircraft can use Italian bases. Between us we can fill the Mediterranean with aeroplanes; and battleships, much less transports, are not safe from bombs from the air."

The inclusion of Spain and Switzerland in the list of neutrals supposed to feel themselves threatened by the Allies is presumably a hint to those countries that they have of late been emphasizing a neutrality which is not altogether to the liking of Germany.

FALSE CLAIMS

In the face of these tactics it is most important that it should be made as clear as possible to the neutral world that the claims which have been made by the Nazis during the last few weeks of crushing losses inflicted by the German Air Arm on the British Fleet are entirely false. For 36 hours the German claim to have

CHINA STATION

VICE-ADMIRAL G. LAYTON

LONDON, Apr. 29 (By Air Mail)—The King has been pleased to approve the following appointment:—

Vice-Admiral Geoffrey Layton, C.B., D.S.O., to be Commander-in-Chief, China Station, in succession to Admiral Sir Percy L. H. Noble, K.C.B., C.V.O., to date July 10.

Vice-Admiral Layton will leave England on or about August 1. He will assume command about September 1.

SIR PERCY NOBLE

A Naval Correspondent writes:—Admiral Sir Percy Noble has been Commander-in-Chief of the China Station since February, 1938, and will thus have held the command for over 2½ years when he leaves. The normal period of commander-in-Chief of foreign stations is two years, but is often extended.

Vice-Admiral Layton at the outbreak of war was second in command of the Mediterranean Station, with his flag in the Braham, an appointment which has generally been regarded as a stepping-stone to a command-in-chief. Whether he is still serving there, however, is not known to the public, since no Navy List has been published since the outbreak of war, nor have officer appointments, other than a few of the more important ones, been made public, as they are in peace-time.

MUST HAVE VERY SOUND DEFENCES

NEW YORK, May 28 (Reuter)—Mr. Herbert Hoover, the former President, broadcasting last night, urged the creation of a United States munitions administration at Washington with the assistant heads for Labour, Agriculture and Industry to direct the United States defence programme.

Mr. Hoover declared: "What America must have are such defences that no European nation will even think about crossing 3,000 miles of ocean."

sunk two important units of the British Fleet was allowed to hold the field unchallenged. The denial, when it came, was too curt entirely to efface the effect of the blatant and triumphant German assertion.

CARELESS TALK

GIRLS THE WORST OFFENDERS

LONDON, May 4 (By Air Mail)—In spite of the Government anti-gossip campaign, some people are still gossiping.

Young girls are the worst offenders. In buses, trains and restaurants they can be heard talking of matters which could easily be of direct help to the enemy.

AN INCIDENT

In a Fleet-street cafe this week, a girl sitting at the table next to mine persisted in talking in a loud voice of the activities of her fiancé in the Army.

Everyone in the cafe could have learned what regiment he was in and also that he had just been moved from his original station somewhere in England to somewhere else. She mentioned the names of both towns.

A SOLDIER TALKS

When I told her she might be giving away official secrets she became indignant; but she changed the subject.

I heard a soldier in a London club announce for all to hear that the orders for his regiment to leave for France had been cancelled. He understood they were now to be sent to another place—also named.

ITALIANS FOR THE ALLIES

BELFORT, May 28 (Reuter)—The Italian ex-Servicemen's organisations in the districts of Belfort, Montbéliard, Audincourt and Hermancecourt have issued an order affirming their complete loyalty to the French nation which "has given us hospitality work and liberty."

"We are placing our unshakable confidence in a victory for the Allies. We are ready to fight the barbarous German aggressors on the side of our old brothers-in-arms."

GERMAN TACTICS ARE SUICIDAL

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—Calais is firmly in our hands and will be defended with the utmost energy, stated a Paris radio commentator last night.

After mentioning the utter recklessness with which the Germans are wasting men and materials, the commentator said the German tactics in Flanders and Antwerp are suicidal. As an example of the appalling waste, the commentator quoted a single German air raid on Calais in which 43 German planes were brought down by fighters and anti-aircraft guns.

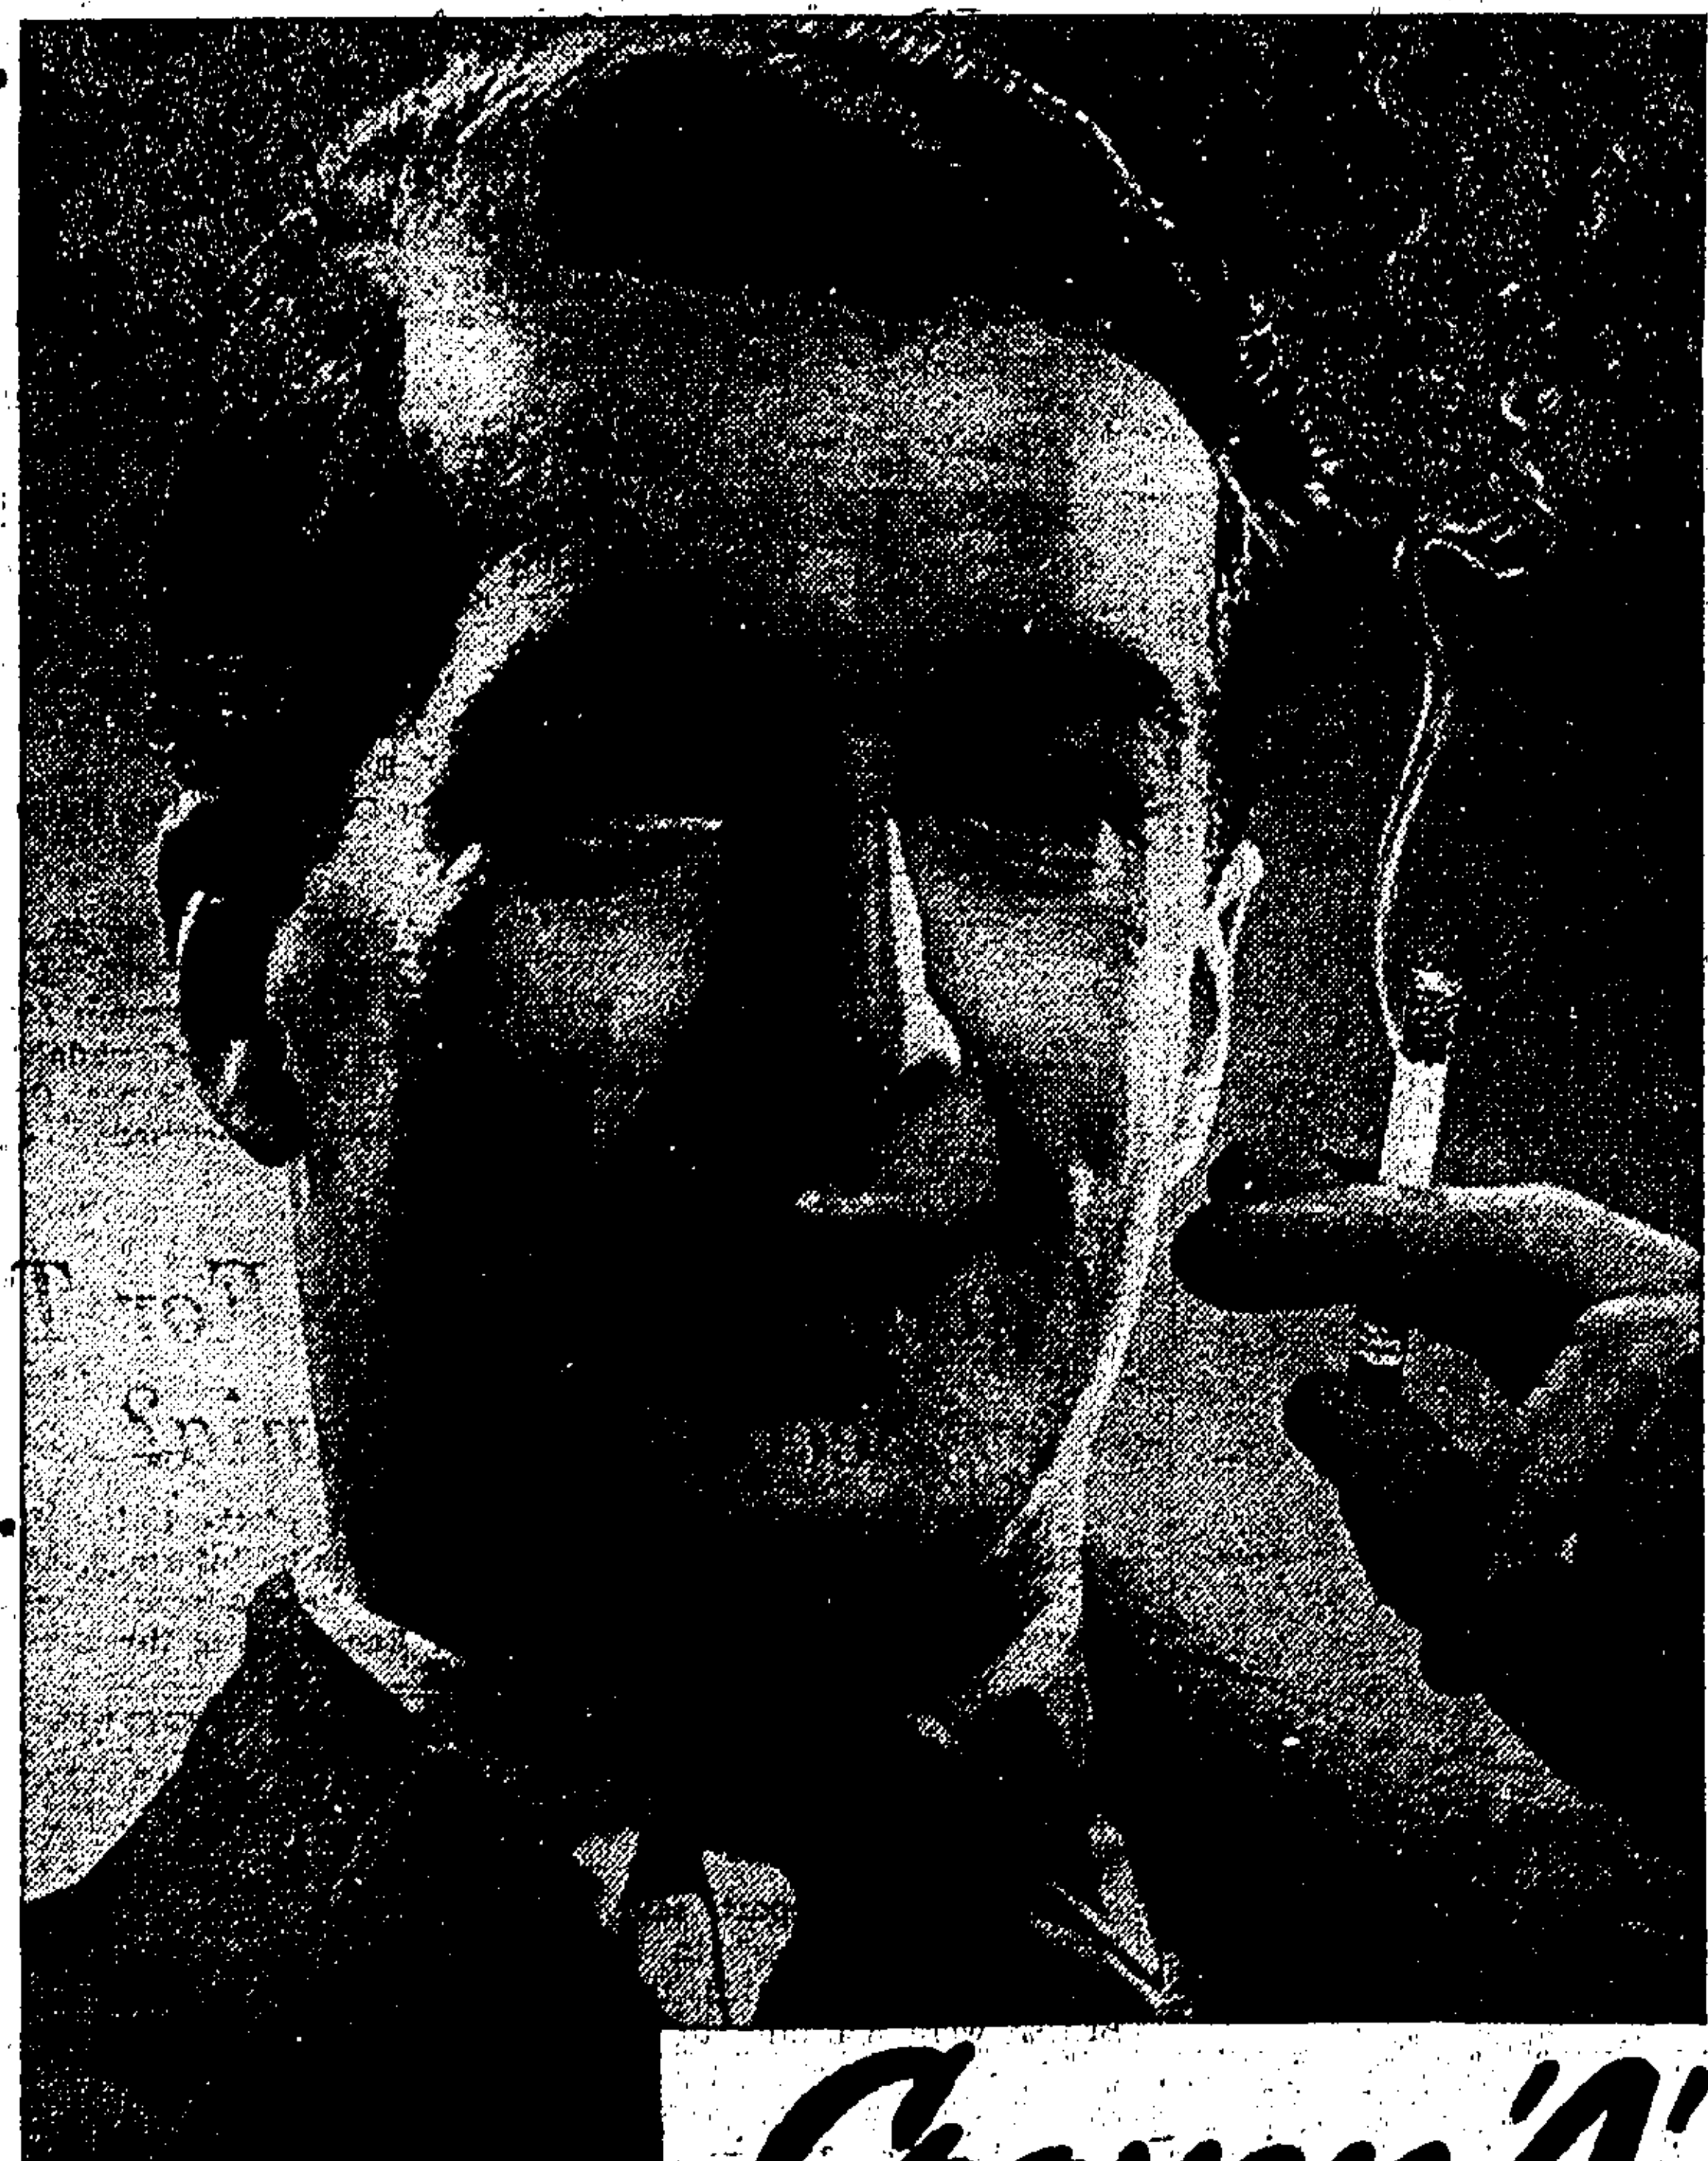

on the side of our old brothers-in-arms.

NO PEACE FOR BELGIUM

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter)—In a Paris radio broadcast speech by the Belgian Prime Minister, M. Pierlot, announced that the Belgian Cabinet met today at the Belgian Embassy in Paris and speakers of both Chambers of the Parliament and other leaders were present.

The Government unanimously affirmed its will to continue the struggle until a common victory is won, and declared that there will be no peace until independence is regained, and the rights of Belgium restored.

M. Pierlot said King Leopold dominated all their thoughts. He had put himself at the head of the troops and had not left them for three weeks.

GERMAN SHIP CAPTURED

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter).—The part played by a Canadian warship in the capture of a German ship has just been revealed here.

She is Canada's latest destroyer H.M.C.S. Assiniboine.

She was on patrol in company with the British cruiser Caribbean.

They sighted the Hannover a German merchant ship which was promptly set on fire by its German crew.

The two warships, however, were determined to try and save it.

The cruiser took the Hannover in tow while the Assiniboine went to windward and came alongside. She brought hoses to bear on the flames.

For five days this strange convoy continued until they arrived at Kingston, Jamaica. There the Germans lost their ship and the Empire gained another.

The captain of the cruiser said that the Hannover would have been lost if it had not been for the help of the Canadian vessel. Her commanding officer acted with great skill.

U.S. FLAGSHIP LEAVES SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI, May 28 (Reuter).—U.S.S. Augusta, flagship of the U.S. Asiatic Fleet, sailed for northern ports yesterday. She is reported to be going to Tsingtao and Chefoo. The U.S.S. Gold Star and U.S.S. Finch also left port, and the U.S.S. Marblehead is expected to arrive from Manila in a few days.

New Directors Assume Work At Po Leung Kuk

The newly elected directors of the Po Leung Kuk assumed office yesterday when a very pleasant ceremony was held to mark the occasion.

Present at the function were members of the Permanent Board of Directors, the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, the Hon. Dr. Li Shu-fan, the Hon. Mr. W. N. Thomas Tam and Messrs. Tam Woon-tong and Au Lim-chuen.

As has already been announced, the new Directors comprise Mr. Lo Tung Fan (Chairman), Mr. Fok Po-chol, Mrs. C. H. Wan, Mrs. Khong Keng-poh, and Messrs. Lam Yik-kau, Cheung Man-tung, Lam Chik-suen, Lee Shiu-kee, Ng Tat-piu, Chan, Kung-po, Chan Yuk-chuen and Sun Che-sin.

MR. LO'S ADDRESS

The Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo addressed the gathering as follows:—
It is a great honour to me to attend this morning's ceremony. I recall that at the election of the new directors held last week, the Hon. the Secretary for Chinese Affairs congratulated most warmly Mr. Ngan Shing Kwan, chairman of the retiring directors, and his colleagues, for their excellent work during a difficult year of office. It is therefore, unnecessary for me to dilate on this matter.

The Hon. S. C. A. in very appreciative terms also referred to the work done by the lady directors and particularly Mrs. Ho Leung. Having regard to the family relations between Mrs. Ho Leung and myself, it is a little embarrassing for me to speak of her work, but from all accounts, I am delighted to hear that during the two successive years in which she served as a director she co-operated with her colleagues so well that much good work was accomplished.

I know, too, how much Mrs. Lambert Gockchin has done. On behalf of my colleagues and myself and in the name of the Chinese community, I desire to tender to Mr. Ngan and to each and all of his colleagues an expression of sincere gratitude and thanks.

AN OLD FRIEND

As regards the new directors, the chairman, Mr. T. F. Lo, is an old and intimate friend of mine whose public spirit and public services are well-known. He will have the invaluable help of Mr. Huo Po-tai, the well-known banker, the wife of my friend Dr. C. H. Wan, and his other colleagues all of whom are well-known and respected citizens of the Colony. With such a strong and representative new committee, the Chinese public is happy in the knowledge that the affairs of the Po Leung Kuk are in good hands. I wish them, as indeed, I predict for them, a most successful term of office.

RETIRING CHAIRMAN

The retiring chairman, Mr. Ngan Shing Kwan made a speech as follows:—

I complete my duties today, and the management of this institution for the year 1940-1941 will be taken over by the new chairman, Mr. Lo Tung Fan. I want to express my gratitude to all the people who have given us both material and spiritual assistance. I was extremely fortunate to have had immense help in managing the financial affairs from Mrs. Ho Leung, and I should deeply thank her for her great assistance.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Mrs. Ho Leung presented the financial statement as follows:—

Receipts during the year 1939-1940, $41,583.34.
General Expenditure, $32,018.98.
Balance, $9,564.41.
Collections in Flower Day, $12,910.83.
Miscellaneous Expenses in Flower Day, $751.65.
Expenditure for Development, $3,561.80.
Balance, $8,597.38.
Total Balance, $18,161.79.

NEW CHAIRMAN

Mr. Lo Tung Fan, the new chairman, said:—

I am very fortunate to be elected new Chairman of this institution, and I thank all who have helped me to obtain this position. I am glad to receive the great encouragement and assistance of my friends and colleagues.

Speeding Up
War EffortCANADA'S FINE
RESPONSE

OTTAWA, May 28 (Reuter).—The Prime Minister, Mr. Mackenzie King, announced in the House of Commons today, the immediate expansion of Canadian military and air forces to meet the critical situation in Europe.

The proposed increases include veterans in Reserve in addition to Veterans' Home Guard, as announced last week.

RIFLE BATTALIONS

Rifle battalions are to be recruited for the Fourth Division Canadian Active Service Force. About 5,000 Canadians, whose names are already on the Canadian R.A.F. list will be called up for immediate duty, and also the reserves of the Veterans' Home Guard.

The Premier said factories will work 24 hours a day to produce equipment for the additional forces.

HEALTH RETURNS

The following is the return of notifiable diseases that occurred in the Colony during the 24 hours ended on May 27:—Tuberculosis, 19; Dysentery, three; Cerebro-spinal fever, two; one each of Measles, Enteric fever and Diphtheria.

WEEK'S FIGURES

For the week ended May 25, the following cases were reported to the Health Authorities:—

Tuberculosis, 184 (110 deaths); Puerperal fever, one; Dysentery, 23 (six deaths); Cerebro-spinal fever, eight (six deaths); Chicken-pox, three; Measles, 12 (one death); Enteric fever, 11 (six deaths); Diphtheria, four; Small-pox, four (three deaths).

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter).—Accounts received in London speak of the determined resistance offered to the enemy by small British detachments.

One engineers' unit of only 300 men, armed with only rifles, was attacked by enemy armoured cars and motor cycle machine-guns. They fought a successful action for several hours and the survivors were able to withdraw.

Frenchmen who liked to spend an hour or so each day sipping aperitifs at the local Bistrot, can do it now on only four days a week. Consumption of spirits on Tues-

Para-Shooters
And Their Tasks

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter).—Sir Edward Grigg, War Office Parliamentary Under-Secretary, in a broadcast, on the task allotted to the Parashooters, said:—

"We want first of all correct information of any enemy landings from the air."

"After that, it is the duty of those on the spot to see that the enemy gets no cars or means of transport, and to bar his progress by any and every means at their disposal."

"All strategic points should be strongly guarded, especially at night, to ensure that such points cannot be rushed."

Sir Edward disclosed that over 400,000 volunteers have been enrolled of which a large proportion have already been armed.

AUSTRALIAN
ENTERTAINED

The Australian and New Zealand Association held a very successful dance last night at the Y.M.C.A. when they entertained 50 men from the personnel of three Australian ships.

The programme introduced two Australian dances, "Jolly Miller" and the "Barn Dance," while some Aussie songs were sung later.

Another dance for 100 men will be held at the Y.M.C.A. on Thursday, June 6.

Two More Nazi
Ships Sunk
By Norwegians

LONDON, May 28 (Reuter).—Two more German ships, totalling more than 6,000 tons, were sunk by the Norwegians.

The German mercantile losses are now over 830,000 tons which is very much greater than the Allied losses by Nazi action.

Up to Sunday, May 19, the Germans sunk one British merchantship, three Allied and two neutral ships.

Control Tightened: Ideas
From France

"A STATE OF SIEGE EXISTS AS FROM TODAY." Throughout the Republic of France this edict went up on September 3, 1939. Batches after batches of decrees have regularly served since as reminder to the people that their country is at war with a brutal neighbour for the third time in 70 years.

Britain is more easy-going. The Emergency Powers Act rushed through Parliament on the outbreak of war gave His Majesty's Government such widespread authority to restrict the nation that staid Parliamentarians raised a hullabaloo against the flouting of so many time-honoured liberties.

CONTROL TIGHTENED

But Britain's control of civil life still lagged far behind its ally's. Recently, with the Allies drawing closed together as Lap II of the war began, the gap grew smaller. A tightening of control was visualised until all Britons were as rigidly ruled as the French.

MILITARY:—To the ranks men between 20 and 27, now liable for service with the Colours, all able-bodied male citizens up to the age of 35 are to be added by the autumn.

POLITICAL:—Outlawed by the Government of France is the communist Party, third biggest in the Republic, with some 3,000,000 sympathisers.

All its 45 Deputies who could be located were arrested, last week they were sentenced to four and five-year terms of imprisonment for spreading the propaganda of a foreign country—Moscow's Third International.

Britain's unrepresentative offshoot of the Comintern has so far been winked at—against the French party's 45 Deputies it has only one M.P. at the utmost 150,000 sympathisers.

But at the first sign of serious Red interference with efficient conduct of the war, Comrades in Britain will be rounded up.

FOOD AND DRINK

Frenchmen who liked to spend an hour or so each day sipping aperitifs at the local Bistrot, can do it now on only four days a week. Consumption of spirits on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays is forbidden.

No bar on drink is likely in Britain, but strict State control of supplies last week caused a whisky shortage. At many public-houses and "off-licences" it was unobtainable.

LABOUR:—To take the place of 5,000,000 workers now wearing the blue uniform of the French Army, women and young men were made liable for compulsory labour in fields and war factories. A list of industries for which they may be enlisted is being drawn up by the French Ministry of Labour.

Already Britain's Ministry of Labour is charting the reservoir of workers employed in luxury and non-essential trades who might be used to reinforce the war effort. Lord Derby has outlined a scheme of recruiting workless youths for service in the vital industries, farming and forestry.

MORE RESTRICTIONS

Among the shoals of restrictions in France are others which may sooner or later be reproduced in Britain:

Closing of bakers' and confectionery shops on certain days of the week, and mixing wheat and bean flour to stave wheat consumption. This results in "black" bread.

Meatless days, when butchers' shops are closed. Supervision of food prices and the quantities sold in shops and restaurants. Only two dishes, exclusive of hors d'oeuvre soup, cheese and dessert, are to be served at any one meal.

Customs duties on spare parts for agricultural machines are being relaxed, and the Government has promised premiums to help farmers with food-raising.

The Royal Observatory reports that the total rainfall for 1940 has risen 8.84 inches above normal.
